Invitation for participation in the competition

ETHNO FASHION DESIGNS OF CROATIA 2013

Dear designers,

We have the pleasure to invite you to the competition Ethno Fashion Designs of Croatia 2013, which will be held on June 1, 2013 in Vukovar, organised by Cultural Center Gatalinka. The winners will be announced in Vinkovci on June 2nd, 2013.

If you don't want to compete, you can participate in the fashion show.

Competition terms

The designers compete with 5 (five) outfits.

It is extremely important that the outfits are exclusively inspired by traditional clothing from regions inhabited by Croats (Croats from Croatia, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Hungary, Austria, Serbia and other countries inhabited by Croats). The inspiration can be found either in the form, the cut, the embroidery and lace techniques, the colour, the material, the knitting or wool felting techniques. The outfits should also have accessories, including shoes, purses and jewellery.

The designers must register for the competition no later than May 25th, 2013. They should send the registration form, a CD with the photographs of the registered outfits and ethno music (duration 3 minutes) to the organizer. The application fee of 200,00 kn should be paid in cash at the beginning of the competition or transferred into the account of the organizer.

The Panel of Judges comprises designers, ethnologists, folklorists and journalists.

The first prize is 5.000,00 kn, the second is 3.000,00 kn and third 1.000,00 kn. All participants must take part in the Ethno Fashion Show during the Autumn Festival (Vinkovačke jeseni). The awarded competitors don't have to pay the application fee for the show, but other participants have to pay it in the amount of 300,00 kn. The designers can take part without paying a fee in the Autumn Handicrafts and Economy Fair (Gospodarski sajam) which lasts for 3 days, and is organised during the Autumn Festival as well. The designs will be published in the magazine „Ethnorevija“ (Ethno Fashion Show) in February 2014.

Designers not participating in the competition but in the fashion show, should provide 5 outfits inspired by traditional clothing. The designers must register for the competition no later than May 25th, 2013 and send the registration form to the organizer including a CD with photographs of the registered outfits and ethno music (duration 3 minutes). They are also part of the jury, which will evaluate the outfits created by competitors. If there is a large number of registered outfits, the organizer will choose some of them.
